Office Order

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) is an essential institutional mechanism established to promote a consistent culture of quality in higher education. Mandated by NAAC, it helps institutions enhance their performance and achieve holistic educational outcomes. As a hub of planning and quality coordination, the IQAC plays a vital role in strengthening the foundation for continuous academic and administrative growth.

The key responsibilities of the IQAC include:

- Ensuring Quality: The primary function of the IQAC is to develop and maintain quality benchmarks for all academic and administrative activities of the institution.
- Monitoring and Assessment: IQAC monitors the implementation of best practices and evaluates the effectiveness of quality-related interventions.
