

Report of Library Facilities at Government Degree College Salooni

The Government Degree College Salooni is proud to have an enriched library, designed to support the academic journey and intellectual development of its students.

The library has an extensive collection of more than 2,000 books, covering a wide range of categories and subjects. To ensure our resources remain up-to-date, we are committed to adding at least 100 new books annually across different disciplines.

In addition to books, institution provide access to 5 daily newspapers and 3 monthly magazines, offering students vital opportunities to expand their knowledge and stay informed about current events.

With a seating capacity of 80 students, the library is an inviting space for study, research, and exploration. Students are encouraged to make full use of this facility during working hours on all working days.
